OUR CORPORATE CONFESSION OF SIN

Father, we confess that we are often apathetic and bored.

Creation has bored us.

Work has bored us.

Our families have bored us.

Our homes have bored us.

Our friends have bored us.

Redemption has bored us.

Truth has bored us.

Faith has bored us.

Service has bored us.

Yes, even You have bored us.

No generation since the beginning of time has had so much to entertain it. We are jaded and cynical.

We think the world is our servant, so we are not thankful when things go well for us, and we are not patient when they do not.

We believe that our every want and desire should be satisfied, so we are not delighted when they are, and we are not humbled when they are not.

We laugh, but we do not know joy.

We are intrigued, but we are never really awed.

We celebrate, but we do not worship.

Have mercy on us and forgive us.

Take us to the cross once again, and amaze us with Your grace – Your blood-stained, incarnate, Messianic grace.

Take us to the cross once again, and open our eyes to the glory of God in Christ Jesus.

Take us to the cross once again, and leave us there.

Amen.

THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON (adapted from Psalm 103:12; Micah 7:19)

As far as the east is from the west, so far does our Lord and Savior remove our sins from us. He has compassion on us;

He treads our iniquities under foot. He casts all our sins into the depths of the sea.

QUESTION & ANSWER #1

Pastor: What is your only comfort in life and death?

Congregation: That I with body and soul, both in life and death, am not my own, but belong unto my faithful Savior

Jesus Christ; who, with His precious blood, has fully satisfied for all my sins, and delivered me from all the power of the devil; and so preserves me that without the will of my heavenly Father, not a hair can fall from my head; yea, that all things must be subservient to my salvation, and therefore, by His Holy Spirit, He also assures me of eternal life, and make me sincerely willing and ready, henceforth, to live unto Him.

THE PRELUDE

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

* THE HYMN NO. 706 – “JESUS LIVES AND SO SHALL I”

* THE INVOCATION

* THE CONFESSION OF FAITH – HEIDELBERG CATECHISM #45-48

Q45: What benefit do we receive from the "resurrection" of Christ?

A45: First, by His resurrection He has overcome death, that He might make us partakers of the righteousness which He has obtained for us by His death. Second, by His power we are also now raised up to a new life. Third, the resurrection of Christ is to us a sure pledge of our blessed resurrection.

Q46: What do you understand by the words "He ascended into heaven"?

A46: That Christ, in the sight of His disciples, was taken up from the earth into heaven, and continues there in our behalf until He shall come again to judge the living and the dead.

Q47: But is not Christ with us even unto the end of the world, as He has promised?

A47: Christ is true man and true God. According to His human nature He is now not on earth, but according to His Godhead, majesty, grace, and Spirit, He is at no time absent from us.

Q48: But are not, in this way, the two natures in Christ separated from one another, if the manhood is not wherever the Godhead is?

A48: Not at all, for since the Godhead is incomprehensible and everywhere present, it must follow that it is indeed beyond the bounds of the manhood which it has assumed, but is yet nonetheless in the same also, and remains personally united to it.

A Guide to the Morning Service

The Bible conveys a theology of rest throughout its pages; from the very days of Creation in Genesis to the final rest at the consummation in Revelation. Sometimes this rest refers to physical and sometimes spiritual. It is comforting that God's Word considers both since both are so intimately related. Physical rest often leads to soul rest and vice versa. As we struggle to find rest in both these areas of our lives it should make us long for that eternal rest will be given to both soul and body. The following passages will give you a survey of this theology of rest. Read this with your family throughout the week and discuss and ask questions, interpret each one in its context, and apply it to your lives.

- Genesis 2:1-3, 18:4
- Exodus 16:23, 23:12
- Deut. 5:14, 12:9
- Joshua 1:13
- Job 3:17
- Psalm 23:3
- Isaiah 30:15, 32:17
- Matthew 11:28-30, 26:45
- Mark 6:31
- Luke 12:19
- Hebrews 3 – 4:13
- Revelation 14:13

Welcome to Grace Presbyterian Church

If you are visiting with us, we pray the ministry of the Word and the fellowship of God's people will encourage you. We would love to be able to follow up with you, so please fill out the information below and place it in the offering plate. We do have a nursery available for children four and under, but we love having every member of the covenant community gather with us to worship our Savior and King – feel free to keep your children with you. We celebrate the Lord's Supper the first Sunday morning of each month. The Inquirers' Class (a prerequisite for membership for non-PCA members) is offered regularly as a way to learn more about what we believe. If you have any questions about our church, the elders would be happy to talk with you after the service.

Please silence all cell phones upon entering the sanctuary.

THE LORD'S DAY

March 21, 2010

As You Enter Silently, Use These Words to Prepare Your Heart for Worship:

And as he reclined at the table in his house, many tax collectors and sinners were reclining with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many who followed him. And the scribes of the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, "Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

And when Jesus heard it, he said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners."
